

e-LEARNING COURSE PROPOSAL FORM

In advance of Stanhope 2009, delegates and other interested policing organizations are asked to submit proposals for topics for priority e-learning development. Please complete the following form in as much detail as possible. Completed forms must be emailed to CPKN (to bill.gibson@cpkn.ca) by September 14, 2009.

All proposals will be compiled by CPKN and distributed to delegates prior to the Conference. Following presentations and discussion during the Conference, delegates will have the opportunity to vote on these topics. For full details on the e-Learning Course Selection process, please refer to www.cpkn.ca/stanhope09/course_selection_process.pdf

Proposal Submission

Name of Service/Agency: Rothesay Regional Police Force

Contact Name/Title: Chief Stephen McIntyre

Contact Phone Number:

Contact e-Mail:

Proposed Topic Information

- 1. Proposed Course Topic: Internet-Social Network-Basic Introduction
- 2. Please provide a brief course description: I would suggest a one or two hour on-line training opportunity which would serve to describe in some detail, the differences of various social networking programs currently available via the internet. I would suggest that programs such as "Facebook", "High 5", "Twitter" and "MSN" etc are used by a very large segment of the population and police forces are experiencing more and more complaints related to "threats" being delivered over same as well as "hacking" into another persons account etc. It is generally a frontline officer who received the initial complaint for service and this proposed on-line training could serve to better educate the officer insofar as to providing appropriate advice to the victim and perhaps properly

e-Learning Course Proposal Form

securing electronic evidence so that a more experienced Tech Crime Investigator could proceed further with an investigation if required. Any course could obviously extend further and cover other areas involving internet fraud, such as complaints involving E-Bay etc. and would serve to better inform the initial responding officer on such complaints.

3. To your knowledge, does any e-learning currently exist on this topic?

Yes No

If yes, please provide details:

4. Is a classroom-based version of this training currently available?

Yes No

If yes, how long (in days) is the classroom training?

5. How would this course be delivered?

e-Learning Only Blended (e-Learning + Classroom)

6. Is a Subject Matter Expert (SME) readily available to transition content to an online format?

Yes No Unknown

Name of SME:

SME's Service/Agency:

Contact Phone Number:

Contact e-Mail:

Additional SME Information (i.e. background of expertise in this area) – Optional:

Tech Crime Investigator

7. Please provide any additional information available on this proposed course (i.e. target audience, potential rates of participation, etc.)

e-Learning Course Proposal Form

Front line Officers and Investigators

Proposed Topic Rationalization

8. What is the perceived gap in training for this area?

Not sure if any such Training is currently offered at "basic" level.

9. What level of risk is associated with the training gap (at the officer, service, and public levels)?

Loss of Evidence or inability for Members to take proper action.

10. Is this topic of national relevance to police and other law enforcement agencies?

Yes No

Comment:

11. What are the potential benefits of this training?

Increased Professionalism for First line Officers/Investigators

12. Do you want to participate in the "Soapbox Session" (morning of Wednesday, October 7th) to present your proposal to other Stanhope 2009 delegates?

Each participant will have 2-3 minutes to communicate why their proposed topic should be considered.

Yes No

13. Additional Comments: