

2026 CPKN CONFERENCE

From Simulation to Street:

Technology that Connects Training to Performance

Partnership Package

September 22 - 24, 2026 | Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island

Hosted by the Canadian Police Knowledge Network (CPKN)

About the CPKN Conference

Since 2007, the annual CPKN Conference (formerly Stanhope Conference) has brought together the Canadian policing and public safety community to share knowledge, discuss best practices, and explore emerging trends in professional development.

As a not-for-profit organization, CPKN relies on the support of our Network—including sponsors—to make events like the 2026 CPKN Conference possible.

CPKN is committed to strengthening our relationships with services, organizations, and institutions across Canada so we can transform the policing community together.

PURPOSE

- To learn about new training, emerging trends, and best practices.
- To learn about new technological advancements and best practices in policing.
- To learn about new emerging issues in policing.
- To network, collaborate, and connect.
