

Canadian Credible Leadership Cohort

An immersive and interactive blended leadership program for police and public safety professionals.

Model. Coach. Inspire. Challenge. Enable. Encourage

Overview

Given ongoing challenges and scrutiny, strengthening leadership skills has become a priority for many police services.

CPKN has collaborated with leadership experts and police members to create the Canadian Credible Leadership Cohort – a customizable, cost-effective, and interactive leadership program. This training model pairs independent study with live workshops and peer support to provide a unique learning experience that equips participants with the skills to:

- Enhance operational efficiency
- Sustain public trust
- Reduce liabilities
- Attract and retain the best talent
- Successfully lead their peers, organizations, and communities

Target Audience

- Police members and public safety personnel
- Sworn and civilian employees
- Formal and informal leaders

Program Benefits

- Customizable: Facilitate in-house or use the national CPKN model
- Flexible: Complete your training anytime and anywhere
- Inclusive: Gives knowledge on diversity and equity
- Research-Based: Informed by public safety research
- Interactive: Workshops and group engagement activities
- Cost-Effective: One time fee with no hidden or extra costs.

ENROLL NOW for the fall cohort!

Ready to start your leadership journey?

For more information, please contact:

Randy Cameron
Manager Outreach & Partnerships

Tel: 902 314 7534
Email: randy.cameron@cpkn.ca

Testimonials

"I didn't have expectations coming into this course, but have taken away how better understanding myself and my goals can influence how I interact with and impact those around me."

"I learned tangible skills that would help me progress as a leader within a policing environment."

"I learned how to develop emotional intelligence through self-awareness and suspending judgement."