TIMELINE

ABOUT SPS

Surrey Police Union represents SPS officers; CUPE 402 represents SPS civilian employees.

Surrey Police Union ratified its first collective agreement in 2022.

Over 300 police officers and civilian employees have been hired.

~150 SPS officers have been deployed into policing operations, with additional deployments every two months.

Currently have 14 SPS Recruits with SPS Field Trainers in Block II training (deployed frontline training environment)

BUILDING A NEW TRAINING UNIT

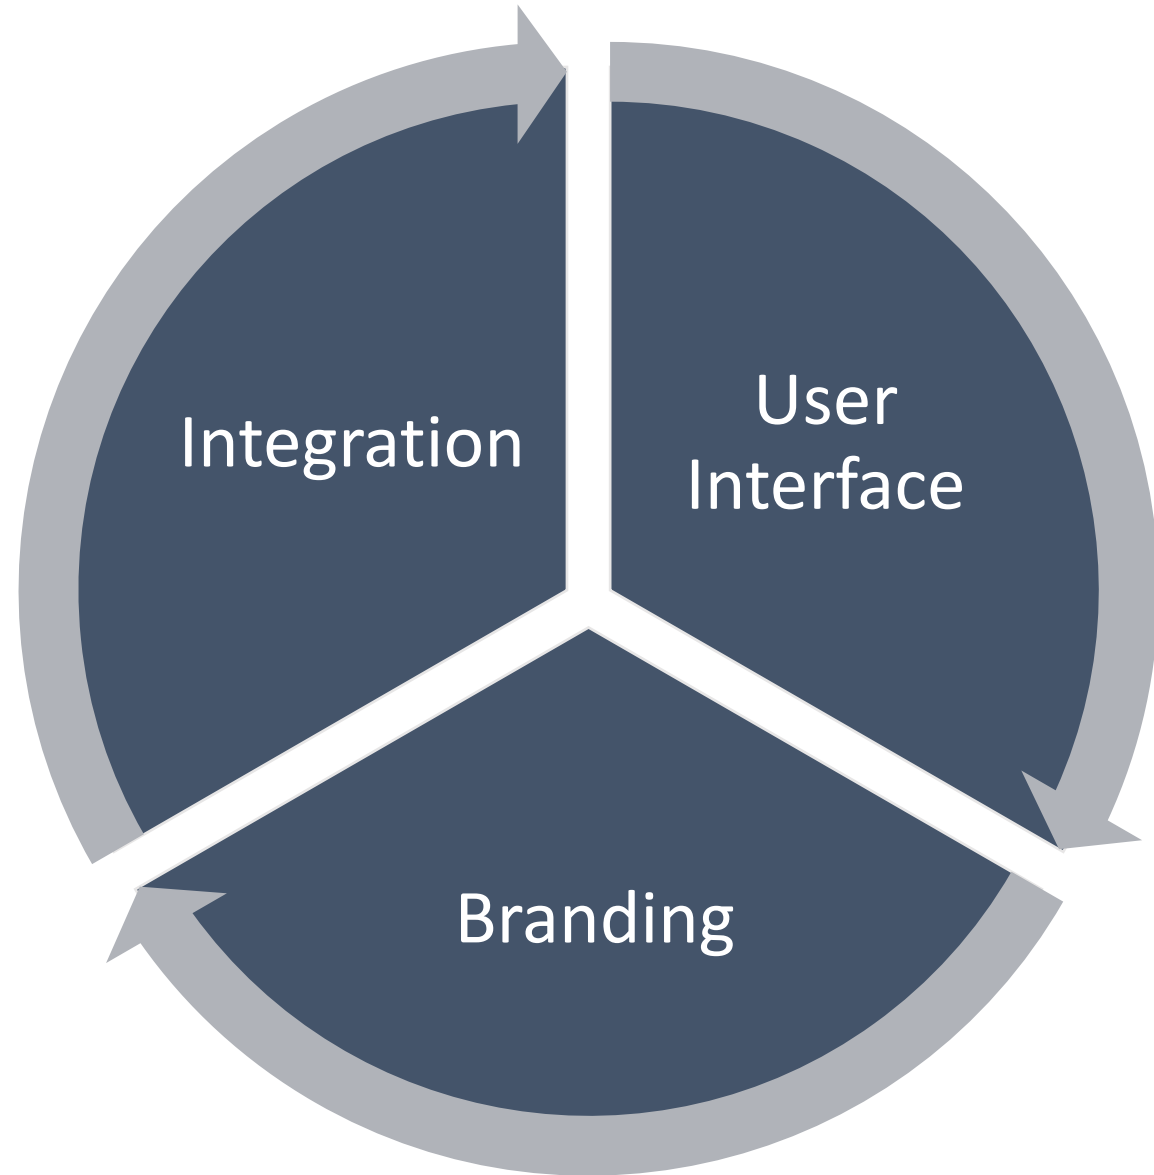

Challenges:

- Lack of training facilities
- Limited internal resources
- No systems, workflows, or programs for managing or tracking training
- Hiring exempt police officers from across Canada: training records
- BC PPS requirements + RCMP Training requirements

Decisions made early:

Reset training for all exempt officers during Onboarding 6-weeks
Establish CPKN learning portal for SPS
